August and September Meetings

On August 26th, the FWGS toured the genealogy section of the Fort Worth Public Library. Manager Ken Hopkins and his staff, Max Hill, Shirley Apley, Kimberly Wells and Tom Kellam, gave brief presentations about the library's resources and about their efforts to improve customer service. They demonstrated the new microfilm/fiche printer and the new overhead photocopier, which now makes it possible to copy the census indexes, mug books and city directories. Other items of discussion were the 1930 census, the online obituary index, beginners' classes, the Ancestry in Action workshops and the archives. Ken Hopkins asked the Society members for suggestions on how to improve the genealogy section in order to attract customers.

The loss of the remote Tandy Center lot, where many genealogists parked, was also discussed. Ken described how all of the downtown parking is free after 6:00 pm on weekdays and on the weekends. There are also 10-hour parking meters on the west of the Library that are an option. It is important to continue to patronize the Library.

The Next Meeting

The next general meeting of the FWGS will be on Monday, September 30th, at 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm at the Downtown Library. Vice President Don Crews and President Ellie Hutcheson invite you to an old fashioned "Social" where society members can exchange research ideas, visit with old friends, and meet new ones. Name badges will be made. Members completed 3"x5" cards at the last meeting that included information about interest areas. Questions asked were 1) name, 2) two states that investigations center around, and 3) three family names in which there is an interest. The purpose of this "Social" is to develop the Society's internal resources. If you were not able to fill out the cards at the last meeting, please email the information to Don Crews at dhcrews@juno.com before the next meeting. Refreshments will be served.
