Upcoming Regular Monthly Meeting

The January 26th, 2004, meeting of the FWGS will feature our very own Bettye Richhart. An experienced genealogist and instructor, Bettye is well known for the regular Saturday workshops that she did for several years. Her presentation "From Legend to Legacy" focuses on ways to share your family history research with your relatives and friends.

The meeting will be in the Tandy Lecture Hall of the Central Library in downtown Fort Worth from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm. Remember that parking along the street and in the Sundance Square Parking Garage on West 3rd Street is free during the evenings.

November Regular Monthly Meeting

On November 24th, 2003, the FWGS held its last general meeting of the year. Some twenty members and visitors were in attendance. After the reading of the minutes and treasurer's report, the officers and board of directors for 2004 took the oath of office. The program was presented by Dr. J'Nell Pate, a local historian and professor at Tarrant County College. She discussed the life and genealogy of Hazel Vaughn Leigh who was the heir of two early Tarrant County families. Her book, Hazel Vaughn Leigh and the Fort Worth Boys Club, was on sale at the back of the Lecture Hall. The Society then adjourned for the holidays.

THE FWGS NEEDS YOUR HELP!

The Society is considering a project called the "Pioneer Families of Tarrant County". We are just beginning and have not finalized the requirements. Under consideration is that all eligible pioneer family applicants must have resided in Tarrant County between 1848 and 1870. Proof of residence would be required. We would like to hear from you to know of your interest and your willingness to help. If you are interested, please contact Joe Grant, 3804 Glenmont Drive, Fort Worth, Texas 76133 or joegrant38@charter.net.
