Upcoming Regular Monthly Meeting

Monday (June 27, 2005)

Fort Worth Central Library – Chappell Meeting Room

6:30 pm: Coffee 7:00 pm: Program

On Monday, June 27, 2005, our speaker will be Marti Fox who is a board member and director of publications for the Dallas Genealogical Society. Her presentation will be: Who Better to Write Your Obituary. Marti Fox came up with the obituary topic during a year when several friends and family lost loved ones and she watched them struggling through their grief, to write a beautiful and accurate obituary. The result was not necessarily the one they would have created with time and forethought.

*Parking is free on the meters around the Library after 6:00 pm and in the Sundance Parking Lot on 3rd and Taylor after 7:00 pm.

Up Coming Community Genealogy Events

Grand Prairie's oldest Methodist Church is celebrating its 125th anniversary by publishing a history book. First Methodist Church was established in 1880, four years after the railroad transformed a country store into the town of Grand Prairie. The history of the church and the history of the city are so entwined that all researchers with Grand Prairie roots will find this—the most comprehensive published history of both—a valuable resource. To order a copy of First United Methodist Church, Grand Prairie, Texas: 125 Years of Service in the Heart of the City, download an order form from the church's website fumcgp.org or contact the church at 122 N. Center Street, Grand Prairie 75050, phone 972-264-6148. The prepublication price is $25.00 plus $7.50 for shipping and handling. On July 10, the price goes up to $35.00 plus $7.50 for shipping and handling.
