“Legendary Locals of Fort Worth”

November 15, 2014

What makes a city vibrant, cultivated, interesting and exciting? What makes it different from all the rest? Its people, of course. The famous, the infamous, the ordinary, the extraordinary, the movers, the shakers - - the ranchers, the artists, the spiritual leaders, the outlaws, the politicians. All of them contributed to the tangy mix of cowboys and culture that is unique to Fort Worth.

Join us at the Billy W. Sills Center for Archives on Saturday morning, November 15, when EMILY YOUREE will share stories of Fort Worth’s legendary locals and their effect on the history and culture of this city. Emily is a freelance editor and writer with experience in all things editorial. She is an award-winning journalist whose articles have appeared in numerous magazines, newspapers, and blogs across the country.

Join us for coffee and “nibbles”
beginning at 9:30 a.m.
