

Billy W. Sills Center for Archives/FWISD

presents

Julian Stuart Haber

“They Were Soldiers in Peace and War: The Story of Jewish Veterans”

December 13, 2014

The era from WW II to the war in Iraq is seen through the eyes of more than 50 veterans, men and women. Interviews capture their experiences in peace and war, their battles, close calls, heroism, memories.

Join us at the Billy W. Sills Center for Archives Saturday morning, December 13, when Dr. Julian Haber will share the adventures and legacies of the Jewish men and women who served in U.S. wars from WW II to the present. Dr. Julian Haber is a Fort Worth physician, author, poet, and historian. He served in the U.S. Air Force.

Recently retired from the practice of developmental/behavioral pediatrics, Dr. Haber writes both fiction and non-fiction, and continues to contribute articles and poetry to medical and literary publications.

Join us for coffee and “nibbles” beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Saturday morning, December 13, 2014

10:00 to 12:00

Billy W. Sills Center for Archives/FWISD
(Second Floor, Metro Opportunity High School)

2720 Cullen Street

Fort Worth, Texas 76107

817-814-2040

Lenna.hughes@fwisd.org

NO ADMISSION FEE