Libby Willis returns to the Billy W. Sills Center for Archives on Saturday, April 21 to present "Tales of Riverside: The Notorious and Merely Famous."

From the first Miss Universe to the longest serving Tarrant County state legislator (and third longest serving in the state) to a well-known writer for Rolling Stone to a nationally known father-son landscape architect team and more, an unusual number of remarkable men and women with Riverside roots have left their mark on the state and national stage. Come hear the stories of these extraordinary lives important to Riverside and thus Fort Worth, Texas, and U.S. history.

Join us April 21 for a morning of learning, fun, and fellowship.
