A FEW WORDS FROM YOUR SOCIETY PRESIDENT

The AGS Board met during August in the Northeast Branch Library Community Room with ten Officers and Committee Chairs in attendance. Our next Board meeting is scheduled for 22 October. The October AGS Board meeting is the budget planning meeting. The Board's recommended 2017 budget will be presented for membership discussion and approval at the 8 November members meeting.

Fellow Society members, please consider contributing some of your time and talent toward the goals of our Society. If you have an interest in keeping our Society in the public eye, contact Ruth Goodman. If you are intrigued by the genealogy reference collection [6000 plus titles] shelved in Arlington's public library, then contact Mary Ann Conrad. Contact John Anderson if the terms Browser, Internet and Online equate to better ways to communicate in today's world. In other words, the following committees are in need of assistance; Publicity, Collection Development and Web Page.

The Web Page Committee's work to add "robustness" to the new AGS web site is ongoing. New features since the June meeting include additional photos and the introduction of a "Research Surnames" page. It has been suggested that an AGS informational video would enhance our web page(s). Do you have or know someone with video making experience? If so, contact our web admin or use the "contact us" email link on the AGS web site. While browsing please add our new web address to your bookmarks or favorites list, and invite friends and family to do the same.

Now, a few words about the new "Research Surnames" page. You may ask, how can a surnames list help a member's genealogy research efforts? When someone searches the internet and opens a surname hit from the AGS web pages, or has an interest in a surname in the AGS web pages, they can use the "contact us" link to send AGS an email stating their interest. That inquiry email from anyone anywhere in the world will be forwarded to our member(s) with that same surname interest. Any response is entirely up to the member receiving the inquiry. Society member surname information on the "Research Surnames" page is taken from annual membership renewal forms. To make updates, send your most current surname info to the Membership Committee. I invite you to visit the AGS web site to see the new "Research Surnames" page.

The new downtown Public Library construction project is well underway. Drive the downtown Arlington area around the City Hall block to see work in progress. The Arlington Public Library Capital Campaign under the auspices of The Arlington Public Library Foundation has been actively soliciting and collecting donations. Donations of $5,000 and above will be recognized in a prominent way in the lobby of the soon to be built George W. Hawkes Central Library. If you are considering a personal donation, here is a link with more information, <http://bit.ly/20ZzX9M>.

Don't overlook this year's Texas State Genealogical Society Family History Conference. The 3-day conference will take place in Dallas at the Crowne Plaza hotel (1015 Elm Street) during the last weekend of October. The conference offers 72 classroom sessions, 5 workshops, 35 speakers, a banquet, and an exhibit hall. Conference registration is now open at TxSGS.org. You can only get a TxSGS membership discount if you register online. Conference workshops are expected to fill up fast, so register now! The AGS Board will look at carpool possibilities for those who would like to attend and commute from Arlington.

Hope you have had an enjoyable summer. See you Monday evening at the September members meeting.

Peter G. Jacobs, President of the AGS

WEEKLY PUZZLER:

What is the meaning of the phrase, cousin german?

According to the late Scottish genealogist Kathleen Cory, when the word german is placed after brother, sister or cousin, it means they are in the fullest sense of the relationship. Cousins german are first cousins. A brother or a sister german have the same parents. German, in this case, is pronounced germane.

These records include letters and endorsements sent and received, account books, applications for rations, applications

THE ARLINGTON JOURNAL (cont.) by Will Keller

Palma Jeanne, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mauldin died at the home of her parents, Thursday morning, Oct. 24, at 8 o'clock. Palma Jeanne was only two months old and her death resulted from pneumonia. Funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Roy Langston and Rev. S. M. Bennett at the Methodist Church at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. Interment will be in the Mansfield Cemetery at 3 o'clock.

Friday October 25, 1929

After a brief illness of only five days, Mr. W. L. Foster, for over twenty-five years a resident of Arlington, and one of the best known men in our community, quietly passed away last Thursday morning at his home on North Center Street. Funeral services were conducted at the family residence Friday afternoon, led by Rev. Roy Langston, pastor of the Methodist Church, assisted by Revs. C. E. Statham, S. M. Bennett and H. M. Redford.

Death was due to overwork, resulting in hemorrhage of the heart.

Mr. Foster was born at Minden, Texas, May 17, 1858. Here he spent the early years of his life, moving to Forney, Texas in 1893, thence to Arlington in 1907, where he and his family have resided since. He is survived by his wife and five children as follows: Marshall Foster of Forney, Archie Foster of Lawton, Okla., Miss Ida Foster and Mrs. Annie Garrison of Arlington, and Mrs. Lulu Richmond of Prairieville, Texas.

Pallbearers were Mike Ditto, Sr., W. M. Douglass, Zac Slaughter, Clarence Wright, A. N. Weaver of Arlington, and Al Powell of Fort Worth.

Mr. Foster was a good man, well known to all our citizenship. For several years he was employed by Hugh Moore and in whose services he was brought in intimate contact with almost all our people. They knew him and loved him with real tenderness. He was a man who worked hard, loved his fellowmen, minded his own business and was more thoughtful of others than he was of himself.

His generous, unselfish nature, and his unvarying kindness to people of all classes and ranks gave him a lasting place in people's hearts.

The devotion of his family to him was beautiful. Faithfully to the last moment they sat by his side, and rendered every possible attention for his comfort. Above all, he was a Christian man. He professed religion early in life, united with the church, and gave assurance to those about him that he was ready to go.

Quietly his body was laid to rest in our beautiful new cemetery, in the presence of a large crowd of sympathizing friends.

“Servant of God, well done,
Rest from Thy blest employ;
The battle’s fought, the victory won;
Enter they Master’s joy.”

Friday October 25, 1929

We wish to thank our many friends for their loving deeds of kindness during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Survivors are his wife; three sisters, Mrs. C. W. Holsell, Mineral Wells, and Mrs. R. O. Crawford and Mrs. Jesse Busby of Grand Prairie; and a brother, E. N. Yarbrough, of Arlington.

Friday November 8, 1929

We wish to extend our thanks and appreciation for the acts of kindness, messages of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings received from our many friends during our recent bereavement in the loss of our brother, J. W. Yarbrough of Brison, Tex.

'A SHOT OF WHISKEY'

In the old west a .45 cartridge for a six-gun cost 12 cents, so did a glass of whiskey. If a cowhand was low on cash he would often give the bartender a cartridge in exchange for a drink. This became known as a "shot" of whiskey.
