FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dallas Genealogical Society Celebrates its 60th Anniversary – Seeks Memorabilia

Dallas, TX, October 1, 2015 - - The Dallas Genealogical Society will celebrate its 60th Anniversary later this year with a Commemorative Issue of Pegasus: the Journal of the Dallas Genealogical Society.

The issue will focus on significant events in the Society's history, and on the individuals who helped make it a success for six decades. The Publications Committee is asking all members and former members of the Society, no matter where they now live, to send their memories, pictures, anecdotes, etc., for possible publication in this Special Issue.

Submit anecdotes and memories to pegasus@dallasgenealogy.org. Send any questions to the same email address.

For pictures, please do not send originals. Contact DGS at the above email address for instructions on uploading.

Deadline for submissions is October 10.

About Dallas Genealogical Society

Founded in 1954, the Dallas Genealogical Society (DGS) is the oldest continuously functioning society of its kind in Texas. The object of this Society is to educate by creating, fostering, and maintaining interest in genealogy; to assist and support the genealogy section of the J. Erik Jonsson Central Library in Dallas, Texas; and to collect, preserve, copy, and index information relating to Dallas County and its early history. The Dallas Public Library has been rated as one of the Top 10 libraries for genealogy research in the U.S. by Family Tree Magazine.

DGS is a nonprofit, tax-exempt corporation and a member of the National Genealogical Society (NGS) and the Federation of Genealogical Societies (FGS).
