Grand Prairie Genealogical Society Monthly Meeting

Thursday, June 2, 2016

Grand Prairie Genealogical Society monthly meeting will be held Thursday, June 2, 2016 at The Ruthe Jackson Center, 3113 S. Carrier Parkway, Grand Prairie, TX. Meet and Greet begins at 6:30 pm with program at 7:00 pm until 9:00 pm

Researching Your Texas Ancestor at Home and On Site

This lecture discusses what records are available on your laptop and tablet and what resources are available to the genealogist when visiting these great sources of Texas research. Even if you are in Ohio you don't have to leave home to locate records about your Texas ancestors.

Speaker: Kelvin L. Meyers

A fifth generation Texan and professional genealogist since 1996, Kelvin now has a solo practice as a forensic genealogist serving clients that include probate attorneys, trust department of banks, the US Immigration Service and energy companies. Kelvin also conducts research for clients with Southern brick wall problems. Kelvin recently wrote the Research in the States Guide for the National Genealogical Society, on Texas. He is a past board member of the Association of Professional Genealogists, a past President of the Lone Star Chapter of APG, and a founding member for the Council for the Advancement of Forensic Genealogy (CAFG).

Guests are always welcome. Please note: We are meeting temporarily in the in the Ruthe Jackson Center, 3113 S. Carrier Parkway, Grand Prairie, TX 75051.
