LISA LOUISE COOKE found her passion for family history at her grandmother's knee at the age of 8. She is now the owner of Genealogy Gems, a genealogy and family history company founded in 2007. You know her from her podcasts, her genealogical books and resources, her classes at Family Tree University, or maybe you have heard her speak at a conference. She speaks at hundreds of genealogical forums both in the US and internationally every year.

Lisa produces and hosts her own Podcast (Genealogy Gems) which brings vital information to genealogists in 75 countries, and has been downloaded nearly 4 million times. She also produces the weekly genealogy YouTube live show Elevenses with Lisa at the Genealogy Gems YouTube channel. In addition to Genealogy Gems, Lisa is the producer and host of the Family Tree Magazine Podcast, author of the Lisa's Picks column in Family Tree Magazine, and a curriculum developer and instructor for Family Tree University.

Family is not just a profession. Lisa is a doting wife to Bill, the proud mom of three daughters, and has added the role of Grandma to her resume. She counts her blessings every day for the love, fulfillment and laughter that family brings to every aspect of her life.
