Finding Your Ancestors in US Church Records

Church records are an underutilized source. Yet, it is in these records where you may find ancestors' births, maiden or married names, marriage details, deaths, family relationships, and residences. This program will help you develop a step-by-step process for identifying, locating, and accessing church records.

DAY: Tuesday, October 26, 2021

Emily Richardson is a professional genealogist and lecturer living in Denton, Texas. She began her genealogy research working with her mother in courthouses and cemeteries finding records for her ancestors in Ohio and Pennsylvania. In 2019, she retired from higher education as a faculty member and administrator, moved to Texas and opened up Kinsearchers, the original name of her mother's business as a genealogist. She is the secretary of the Texas State Genealogical Society, as well as District C Representative. She is on the board for the Fort Worth Genealogical Society and the Robson Ranch Genealogy Club. She teaches genealogy courses for the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) for University of North Texas. Emily is currently the Registrar for The Flower Mound NSDAR chapter and on the State Application Team for TXDAR.

Emily has participated in multiple SLIG (Salt Lake Institute of Genealogy), IGHR (Institute of Genealogical Studies) and TIGR (Texas Institute of Genealogical Research) week-long courses. She is a coordinator for ProGen49, and a mentor for the NGS course Beyond the Basics.
