“Early Transoceanic Pan Am Air Travel and the Fort Worth Connection”

March 23, 2019

As summer vacation time approaches, and you are making plans for travel, this is the perfect time to take a peek into the evolution of air travel. How did people travel to distant places by air in the “olden” days? Dan Smith, meteorologist, historian, and author, and Bill Morris, a director at the Fort Worth Aviation Museum and an aviation historian, will form a tag team March 23 at the Archives Center. Dan Smith will educate us on the evolution of Pan American Airways. Bill Morris will share the unexpected and little-known Fort Worth connection to Pan Am.

Join us March 23, for a morning of learning, fun, and fellowship.

Join us for coffee and “nibbles” beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Saturday, March 23, 2019

10:00 to 12:00
