We are primarily a patriotic organization. Our objectives include helping the public understand our nation's history and fostering a sense of connection with our forefathers through genealogical research.

Enclosed is a flyer about an important genealogy seminar in Dallas on July 7, 2006, and a short press release. All four speakers are prominent in the field and are well respected experts. Since they are speaking without an honorarium, we can offer this seminar at very reasonable admission fee.

2. Post the information contained in the flyer on your society web page, and leave it there until July 7th
3. Using the press release, place a notice of this seminar in your society's next newsletter, magazine and/or journal and continue listing it in each of your society publications until July 7th.
4. Announce information about this seminar at the next meeting of your society, and every meeting between now and July 7th. If you are having a society meeting and would like copies of flyers for each of your members in attendance, please contact me at the above address, and I will forward them by return mail.
