PATTI GILLESPIE, B.A., M.S. brings a special energy to her genealogical presentations. She is currently presenting to groups around the Dallas-Fort Worth metroplex, but has presented to TxSGS and RootsTech, just to name two. With 25 years of research experience Patti established her own research business, Family Lines & Stories, in 2010 with a website/blog www.familylinesandstories.com. Patti is a former chairman of the of the national 2015 Video Professional Management Conference (VPMC) sponsored by the Association of Professional Genealogists (APG), former pioneering regional director for Family Search in a 10 county indexing program in North Texas, and former instructor of a six-week genealogy course for 2 years. Recently she was thrilled to both attend the Gen-Fed Conference held at the National Archives in Washington DC and be selected as a Citizen Archivist for the National Archives Fort Worth.

Patti is a founder and president of Wise County Genealogical Association, serves on multiple boards in Wise County and as a Family History Consultant for the local Family History Center. Patti has set a goal to earn her professional certification soon.
